

Celanese Acetate

Rock Hill, South Carolina

Business Offices

Perigon provided detailed architectural design and construction management services for this building remodel at its existing plant in Rock Hill South Carolina completed in 2004. This major remodeling project of two 1940s era buildings provided contemporary space for Corporate Management, Sales, and Human Resources. Perigon prepared all construction and permitting documentation including the initial cost-basis preliminary design package.

- Total installed cost: $1.2 Million.
- Architectural, HVAC, Electrical, and Construction Management services
- Fast Track project executed in less than 1 year
- 26,000 square feet upgraded for Conference/Sales functions, Executive Management and Personnel Office areas.