

Celanese Acetate

Narrows, Virginia

Research and Development Offices

Perigon provided detailed architectural design and construction management services for this 83,000 sf building remodel at its existing plant in Narrows, Virginia completed in 2004. This major remodeling project of a 1930s era buildings provided contemporary space for Research and Development, Human Resources Offices, Laboratories, and Pilot Plant areas. Perigon prepared all construction and permitting documentation including the initial cost-basis preliminary design package.

- $10 million TIC
- Architectural, HVAC, Electrical, and Construction Management services
- Coordination of the relocation process
- Fast Track project executed in less than 1 year
- 55,000 sf upgraded for Research and Development, Laboratories, Human Resources, Conference Functions, and Pilot Plant areas
- 28,000 sf upgraded for warehousing and storage of support equipment