

Merck and Company

Elkton, Virginia

General Services Facility

Perigon provided all facility design services including the initial Merck Basis of Design Package, the final architectural and detailed engineering packages, and construction management services for this 50,000 sf facility. The building included a credit union, laboratories, a cafeteria, conference facilities and offices for plant management, engineering, and safety personnel

- $11.2 million TIC
- Design and Construction Management services
- 50,000 Square Foot Facility
- Building included credit union, environmental labs, cafeteria, conference facilities and offices for plant management, plant engineering and safety